I love working in Braga Mob Open, because the environment is very friendly, and the people are very nice and great at what they do. You can always rely on them to help when is needed and they are fun but also know when to be strict and they make sure that everyone does their job. Braga mob is a great place to work.

I’ve worked for Braga Mob Open as a trainee for 1 month and I’ve enjoyed every second of it. The staff was very professional and helpful. My job was mostly translating documents from English into Hungarian and I enjoyed it very much. I’ve also did different tasks such as typing and organizing bills. Finally all I can say is thank you BMO!

Braga mob is giving me a great opportunity to know how an organization works. The staff is young, professional and very helpful with me. They are teaching me a lot of things about the right way to manage with the partners and the project participants. I think this experience can open me valuable occupational perspectives. I hope you’ll enjoy their activities like me!

BRAGA - CENTER OF OUR ACTIVITIES
The Portuguese Rome.

In the heart of the green and fertile province of Minho, the district of Braga stretches from the sea inland, with a wooded scenery that undulates in gentle hills and valleys.

The city of Braga, perhaps Portugal’s main religious centre, is known for its baroque churches, splendid 18th-century houses and elaborate gardens and parks.

The old city is solemn and antique but industry and commerce have brought to it a lively style of life, with its universities, modern neighbourhoods, bars and restaurants. The University of Minho was founded in Braga in 1973 and it’s one of the best public Universities in Europe.

On a hill about 3 km south east stands the sanctuary of Bom Jesus do Monte, which is visited on Whitsunday by thousands of pilgrims and is famous for its 18th-century architectural staircase. About a mile beyond it is Mount Sameiro, a top which is situated a colossal statue of the Virgin Mary.

The whole district is famous for its popular feasts and festivals and for the local gastronomy, with many varied original recipes.
